Student Evaluation of Teaching

1.15 What was the most beneficial part of this course?

- Having to focus on the outside professional portfolios that will help with jobs.
- Improving documents such as my resume and cover letter will always be beneficial for job/program applications so I've valued Professor Andreolas's help and expertise on the matter.
- One on one meetings to discuss feedback and improvements. The fact that this course has set me up with a professional portfolio to take with me in my career was extremely beneficial
- Professor Andreolas was extremely helpful in making my portfolio, assisting with my career readiness, and was very nice and caring.
- The most beneficial part of this course is the material that helped me reach my full potential, and also do work for my major that I did not expect to do in an undergrad level.
- The most beneficial part to this course is having a completed portfolio that will help me in the future and give employers something to refer to during the hiring process.
- the professor was available for extra help very often

1.16 What was the least beneficial part of this course?

- Maybe only meeting virtual every couple weeks.
- N/A (2 Counts)
- Nothing
- n/a

1.17 What improvements would you suggest your instructor make in this course?

- Maybe more interaction with other students, but very difficult in online asynchronous course
- N/A
- Nothing don't change!
- Only have this class in person. Makes it difficult to really have hands on with assignments and due dates.
- Professor is always willing to ensure the success of her students! From extended meetings to weekend calls, Professor Andreolas is a true asset to the University and the PR department.
